

Welcome

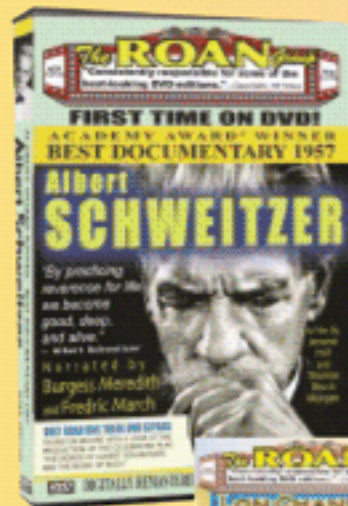

Dear Film-Lover,

Welcome to Roan Archival Group's 2006 Buyer's Guide! Only Roan brings you rare, meticulously restored Hollywood gems with specially created features, including exclusive historical essays, production notes, and film introductions from New York Post Chief Film Critic Lou Lumenick! And 2005-2006 promises even more lost classics, fully restored and not available anywhere else! Upcoming releases include Buster Keaton's slapstick talkie Parlor, Bedroom and Bath, the 1930s musical classic Fisherman's Wharf starring Bobby Breen, Academy Award® winning documentary Albert Schweitzer featuring narration by Burgess Meredith, and Langston Hughes landmark musical Way Down South!

All Roan releases are fully restored and digitally mastered from the original film elements to ensure these classics live on for future generations to enjoy. It's no wonder Roan DVDs are "consistently responsible for some of the best-looking DVD Editions" of your favorite Hollywood treasures!

Best,

Cary Roan
